

Communication Policy

2023-2024

Communication Policy for Rosary School:

As a British school, Rosary School upholds the importance of effective communication in English among its students. This policy aims to create an environment where English language proficiency is fostered and maintained across all school activities, including breaks and corridors. The policy applies to all students enrolled at Rosary School.

English Language Usage:

Students are required to communicate in English at all times while on school premises, including during breaks, in corridors, classrooms, and any other school-related activities.

This policy extends to all verbal and written communication, including conversations, written assignments, presentations, and informal interactions.

Purpose:

Encourage English language proficiency: By consistently using English, students will enhance their language skills and become proficient communicators.

Fostering inclusivity: A common language ensures that all students, regardless of their background, can effectively communicate and participate in school activities.

Preparation for future endeavors: Proficiency in English is essential for success in higher education, careers, and global interactions. By adhering to this policy, students are better prepared for their future endeavors.

Implementation:

Teachers and staff members will actively promote the use of English among students through positive reinforcement and reminders.

The school will provide resources and support to students who may require additional assistance in improving their English language skills.

Students found not adhering to the communication policy will receive gentle reminders and guidance from teachers and staff members.

Exceptions:

There may be occasions where students are permitted to use languages other than English for specific educational purposes, such as language classes or cultural events. However, these instances will be explicitly communicated and supervised by teachers. Students who require language support due to specific learning needs may be provided with accommodations as determined by the school's support services.

Monitoring and Review:

The effectiveness of this communication policy will be periodically assessed through feedback from teachers, staff, students, and parents.

Any necessary adjustments to the policy will be made to ensure its continued effectiveness in promoting English language proficiency among students.

By adhering to the communication policy of Rosary School, students contribute to a supportive and inclusive learning environment that prepares them for success in an increasingly
